

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

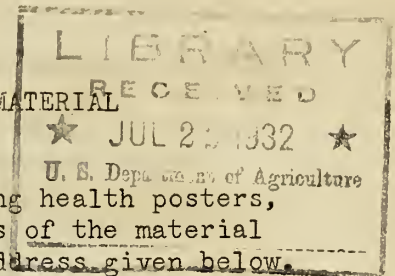

1.9
H-755 Pa

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Bureau of Home Economics

Washington, D. C.

A PARTIAL LIST OF ORGANIZATIONS ISSUING HEALTH MATERIAL

This is a list of some of the organizations issuing health posters, charts, and leaflets. For price lists and descriptions of the material available, write directly to the organization at the address given below.

American Child Health Association, 450 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Maintains advisory service on administrative and teaching problems in the development of health education. Issues bibliographies on health education and child care and training and material for teacher guidance and classroom use, including posters on child health and lists of health plays.

American Dental Association, 212 East Superior Street, Chicago, Illinois, Issues films, slides, lectures, pamphlets, and posters on dental health.

American Medical Association, 535 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. Issues pamphlets on child welfare, sex education, personal hygiene, public health, health problems in education, quackery and the nostrum evil, etc., as well as health posters and charts and health plays.

American Public Health Association, 450 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Maintains a book service relating to public health and has for sale books and other publications dealing with the more technical aspects of health.

American Social Hygiene Association, 450 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Issues pamphlets, books, and films on social hygiene and sex education.

Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, 105 East 22nd Street, New York City.

Issues health pamphlets and charts developed from the standpoint of welfare work.

Chicago Association for Child Study and Parent Education, 537 South Dearborn Street, Room 1308, Chicago, Illinois.

Maintains book and pamphlet service. Material deals largely with the various phases of mental hygiene.

Cleanliness Institute, 45 E. 17th Street, New York City.

Issues posters and other material on cleanliness and its relation to health.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, New York City.

Issues pamphlets on child health, family health, and sickness prevention. (For free distribution to teachers.)

Mulberry Health Center, 256 Mott Street, New York City.

Issues posters, prepared for use in clinics, on the prevention of rickets and dental caries through proper food, sunshine, and the use of cod-liver oil.

240-R (6-16-32)

(M. Barron)

National Amateur Athletic Federation, Woman's Division, 303 West 42nd Street, New York City.

Issues printed publications dealing with safeguarding girls' sports and establishing such ideals and principles as will make certain that these sports and games are being wisely chosen, wisely promoted, and wisely supervised.

National Child Welfare Association, Inc., 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Issues colored posters on various phases of health for pre-school, kindergarten, primary and intermediate grades, high school, and college, and for use in parental education.

National Committee for Mental Hygiene, 450 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Issues leaflets, pamphlets, books, and bibliographies on mental hygiene.

National Dairy Council, 221 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Through the national organization and through its twenty-three affiliated local dairy councils, the National Dairy Council issues a large assortment of posters, charts, leaflets, plays, and other material suitable for teachers, school nurses, club leaders, etc.

National Organization for Public Health Nursing, Inc., 450 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Issues material designed to assist public health nurses in carrying out their program.

National Safety Council, 20 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

Issues material on home accident prevention. Requests for material on accident prevention to school children should be directed to the Education Division, care of Miss Isabelle Stevenson, Executive Secretary, 1 Park Avenue, New York City.

National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, 450 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Issues posters, leaflets, and other material on the care of the eyes and the prevention of blindness.

National Tuberculosis Association, 450 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

Issues posters, wall charts, health songs, plays, pamphlets, and a bibliography of health material.

United States Department of Agriculture, Extension Service, Washington, D. C.

Issues posters, charts, lantern slides, films, and other material dealing with various phases of health.

United States Department of the Interior, Office of Education, Washington, D. C.

Issues health cards, sleep posters, height-weight cards, and other material relating to health.

United States Department of Labor, Children's Bureau, Washington, D. C.

Issues publications on child welfare, maternal and infant hygiene, child hygiene, mental hygiene, and mental defect; motion pictures on prenatal care, infant care, and posture; and posters, charts, maps, and models on child health, child protection, and posture.

United States Treasury Department, Bureau of the Public Health Service, Washington, D. C.

Issues publications and posters on social hygiene, disease, and general health. Material suitable for adults.

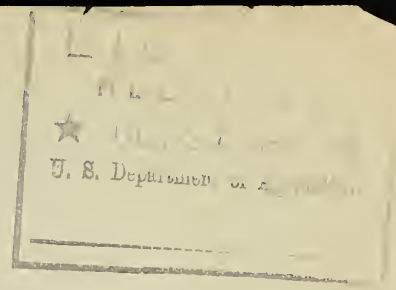

White House Conference on Child Health and Protection.

Volumes on various phases of child health are available through the Century Company, 353 Fourth Avenue, New York City. Some of the titles are as follows: "The Home and the Child," "The School Health Program," "Body Mechanics: Education and Practice," "Growth and Development of the Child: Part III. Nutrition," "Administration of the School Health Program."

Womans Press, Publication Department of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A., 600 Lexington Avenue, New York City.

Publishes books and posters on various phases of health, including body and foot posture.

155 a
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
BUREAU OF HOME ECONOMICS
Washington, D. C.

PARTIAL LIST OF REFERENCES ON DIABETES

Those marked * are written in nontechnical language and contain numerous recipes and menus

* Manual for diabetics. Gladys L. Boyd, and Marion D. Stalsmith. Ed. 3, 90 p. Published by Funk and Wagnalls Co., New York and London. 1931.

* A book for us diabetics and our doctors. Don H. Duffie. Ed. 4, 114 p. Published by the author, South Lancaster, Mass. 1932.

* Food for the diabetic; what to eat and how to calculate it with common household measures. Mary P. Huddleson, Ed. 3, rev., 110 p. Published by the Macmillan Company, New York. 1934.

Treatment of diabetes mellitus. Elliott P. Joslin. Ed. 4, rev. and enl., 998 p. Published by Lea and Febiger, Philadelphia, Pa. 1928.
(Intended primarily for the physician)

* A diabetic manual for the mutual use of doctor and patient. Elliott P. Joslin. Ed. 5, rev. and enl., 224 p. Published by Lea and Febiger, Philadelphia, Pa. 1934.

* Diabetes, its treatment by insulin and diet. A handbook for the patient. Orlando H. Petty. Ed. 5, rev. and enl., 224 p. Published by F. A. Davis Company, Philadelphia, Pa. 1931.

* Practical handbook for diabetic patients; with 180 international recipes (American, Jewish, French, German, Italian, Armenian, etc.) Abraham Rudy. 180 p. Published by M. Barrows and Company, Boston. 1929.

Diabetes in childhood and adolescence. Priscilla White. 236 p. Published by Lea and Febiger, Philadelphia, Pa. 1932. (Intended for the physician)

* Primer for diabetic patients. R. M. Wilder. Ed. 5, rev., 172 p. Published by W. B. Saunders Co., Philadelphia, Pa. 1934.

252 R2 (10-3-35) C.C.

Food Composition

